REQUIREMENT FOR ENTRANCE TO KINGDOM IS DISCUSSED

Evangelist Harmon Discussed Some of the Requirements For Entrance Into Kingdom of Heaven.

Some of the requirements for entrance into the kingdom of Heaven were discussed by Rev. Harmon in his sermon at the First M. E. Church, South, Wednesday evening. In opening, he read as a background some passages from the third chapter of Matthew, the third chapter of John, and the fourth and fifth chapters of First Thessalonians, and took as his text, Matthew 7:21 "Not everyone that saith, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my father which is in heaven." Christian profession without deeds is folly, and even though a man may preach about God, he has no assurance of salvation unless he puts God's service first, and knowing God's will, acts according to it. The three fundamental things that constitute the will of God are: "that every man and woman shall repent—by repentance is meant a coming back or returning when one finds himself going the wrong way; 2. that every man and woman must be born again by putting off the old sinful self and putting on the robe of righteousness; that His children and His church shall be wholly sanctified."

Rev. Harmon upholds the highest standards of conduct for those who claim to be church members, and he continues to present in a very earnest and convincing manner the testimony of the Bible with regard to man's sin and salvation, and the unlimited possibilities of a human life fully surrendered to God. It is hoped the those who have not as yet heard this celebrated evangelist will avail themselves of the opportunity to attend the morning and evening services. The song service is very inspiring and is improving each evening. Last evening a special male quartet assisted in the song service. Rev. O. C. Seever has assisted Rev. Harmon in many revival services and the sermon he preaches through song never fails to bring its message.

MORRISON GETS SEVEN YEARS FOR COLLINS MURDER

Jury in Fleming Circuit Court Finds Arthur Morrison Guilty of Slaying William Collins—Punishment Fixed at Pen Term.

Arthur Morrison was found guilty of slaying his friend William Collins and his punishment fixed at confinement in the state penitentiary for a period of seven years by a jury in the Fleming Circuit Court Wednesday.

It will be remembered that William Collins was killed about a year ago in the mountain section of Fleming county near the Rowan county line and that immediately after the killing, his wife, Mrs. William Collins, confessed to officials that she had slain her husband when he attempted to shoot her with a shot gun. Mrs. Collins was arrested and held for several days but officials learned from other sources that Mrs. Collins' story was not a true one and that she was telling it only to shield Arthur Morrison, with whom she was very friendly and with whom her husband had met her on a mountain path.

Evidence was uncovered that Morrison fired the shot which caused Collins' death and that his wife had nothing whatever to do with his slaying. The woman was released after a Coroner's investigation and officers began the search through the hills of Fleming and Rowan counties for Morrison. He was heard from on several occasions reported as being heavily armed and stalking through the mountains defying the officers.

After several weeks a Deputy Sheriff slipped up on Morrison in the hills and took him to Flemingsburg where he has been safely held in jail since until his trial.

The case attracted considerable attention throughout the upper section of Fleming county and the lower section of Rowan county where both Morrison and Collins were well known.

TOBACCO COMPANIES FACING CHARGES OF PRICE CONSPIRACY

Manufacturers in Collusion With Jobbers to Keep Up High Prices—No Proof That They Kept Down Raw Material Prices.

Washington, Jan. 19. — Three of the principal tobacco manufacturing companies — the American Tobacco Company, the P. Lorillard Company and the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company — were charged with engaging in conspiracies with numerous jobbers' associations to keep up jobbers' prices in a report transmitted Wednesday to the Senate by the Federal Trade Commission.

The three companies, the commission declared, in giving the results of an investigation ordered under a resolution by Senator Smith, Democrat, South Carolina, were formerly part of the "tobacco trust" dissolved by the Supreme Court. The R. J. Reynolds Company, the report said, was not a party to the alleged conspiracies and was commended for its opposition. The commission promised prosecution where the evidence discloses there has been violations of law.

There was no conclusive evidence, the commission stated, of collusion to depress the prices paid growers for 1920 leaf crop. The commission added, however, that "it appears that a few large buyers had a dominant position and each purchased only a certain percentage of the offerings."

"Common buying agencies were used," the report said, with reference to the purchase of tobacco, and secret purchases were made through independent dealers, while the ultimate purchasers held off the market, or practically so."

INSURANCE COMPANY MAKES GOOD SHOWING.

Secretary James B. Key, of the Mason County Farmers Mutual Insurance Company, has just completed his annual report which is one of the best the company has ever made. The report shows that the company has now a total of $2,618,290 worth of insurance in force and that all claims were paid last year on an assessment of twenty cents on the one hundred dollars.

GIRLS' MISSION BAND HOLDS REUNION AFTER 20 YEARS

Sixteen of Twenty-two Members of Active Girls' Band of Presbyterian Church Hold Reunion.

Twenty years and more ago there was a very active auxiliary at the First Presbyterian church known as "The Girls' Mission Band." There were twenty-two active members of the organization and they accomplished much for missions in that church.

The organization finally disbanded when the members of the club grew to womanhood and married and they have not met in nearly twenty years. On Wednesday evening Mrs. John Barbour, wife of the church's pastor, called on members of the club to meet at her home in Market street for a reunion. There were 16 members of the club present, two have died and four members live in other cities. At the reunion the sixteen members enjoyed themselves greatly in recalling the old times and in discussing their experiences during the years that are past.

SIN CAN NOT BE COVERED.

"He who covereth his sins shall not prosper; but whose confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy." This text taken from Proverbs 28th chapter and 13th verse was the subject matter for the sermon at Christian church last evening. The discourse was made of practical illustrations from every day life tending to show the folly of any attempt to cover up sin in the individual life. It was a good wholesome sermon, well thought out and well delivered. Mr. and Mrs. Tuckerman are fine chorale directors and their special singing is a most delightful feature of these evangelistic services. Your presence is coveted and you will both help and be helped by your presence.

OHIOANS GET RELIGION; QUIT MOONSHINING

Kentuckian Holding Revival in Adams County Is Uncovering More Sills Than the Dry Enforcement Officers.

The Manchester Signal says: Rev. Thomas Carr, of Kentucky, has been holding a series of meetings at Germany a small church settlement in Monroe township seven miles east. Much interest has been shown by all classes of all ages.

Thirty have united with that branch of the church.

A slight ripple was caused when a prominent Monroe township man took the platform and said: "If anyone will come to my home at an early hour tomorrow morning I will give him a first class still and complete outfit for making moonshine; come early or the infernal thing will be scrapped, furthermore, if you will tell my many Monroe township clients of this fact it will save them a long trip over the hill—never again will a still be operated by me."

Four other men of that township made a public confession of making and selling pale goods. One man said as a concession for crime that he had used the best ingredients obtainable and that he had not sold to minors—in fact did not have to, as voters took his output as fast as made.

Four stills have been scrapped, one distributor has taken off his boots and nothing is lacking in the confessions except a list of steadies from Monroe and Manchester townships.
